DIARY NOTES

DD/S W JH

23 January 1963

1. General Carter advised me that the Director had talked with him again about [REDACTED] and has charged him with preparing a report on the complete history of this project. I met with representatives of NPIC, DD/I, and the Offices of the Comptroller and Logistics on 24 January to get this report started. (I have asked for the first draft to be completed not later than 31 January.)

2. I talked with Matt Baird further about [REDACTED], and we have decided 25X1A9a to do nothing further about Joe unless he or Harvard should raise the question, which I think is very doubtful indeed.

3. I have agreed with [REDACTED] would be a fine 25X1A9a member of his staff and that it would not be necessary for DD/S to furnish a staff member at this time. He wished to reserve this as a DD/S slot for the future. I told him that I would be very happy about this but didn't want to assume responsibility for Ken's career management. (He is a DD/P careerist.)

4. I agreed to fly with [REDACTED] on Friday, 25X1A6a 25 January, to look at the VIP house which we are going to fix up.

5. Matt Baird and [REDACTED] have talked to me about the possibility of getting [REDACTED] to teach management training. I discussed this with Emmett, who doubted that Hank was going to be able to return to duty in any capacity very soon and that whenever he does return it is doubtful that he will be able to carry on as Chief of the Benefits and Services Division. I told Emmett that if this was the case we had better get started on selecting a replacement without too much further delay.

6. Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Earman, Colonel Edwards, Dr. Tietjen, and I 25X1A met with General Carter for more than an hour to discuss the case of [REDACTED]. It was a stormy but, I think, constructive meeting. It is a tough case indeed, and General Carter's final decision as to whether to honor her appeal will provide further policy guidance for all of us in this general area.
